

Eitrax Setup Document

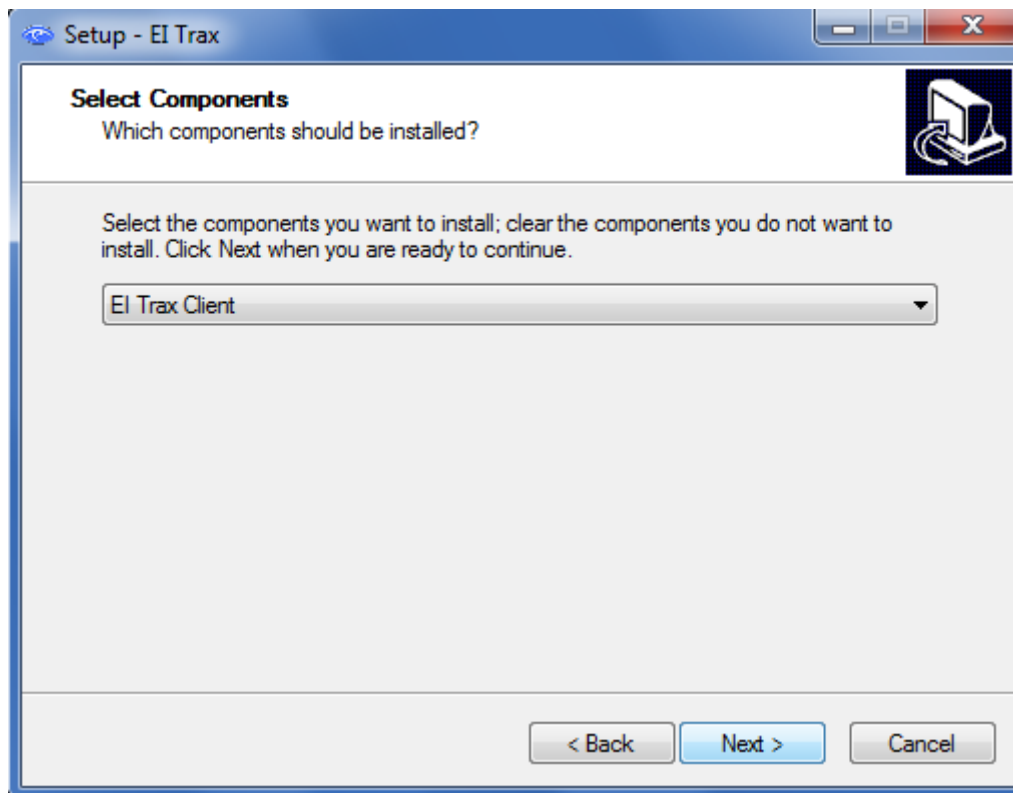

1. For setting up new client machines browse to \\servername\eitrax\setup
2. Now run the setup.exe when the welcome screen appears click next and the screen below will appear, fill in the appropriate company name and registration code. This can be requested by emailing support@eisystems.ie

3. Click next

4. Click next and yes

5. Select ei trax client and click next and next and install. When it is finished restart The pc and login with your username and password.
6. Because eiTrax can have different location settings on every site if you are not sure about where your install files are located please contact Support on 1850347347 or email support@eisystems.ie